

The Oakland CORE Program Presents

The Road to Preparedness

Saturday, November 15, 2014
10:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Having the proper steps in place before an emergency occurs can lead to a much easier recovery process afterwards resulting in returning to normal sooner.

This preparedness workshop will provide information and tools on how to inventory and insure your property to value without wasting money. We will discuss ways to ensure that you have the right kind and right amount of insurance, and steps that you can take to prepare for whatever may come your way.

United Policy Holders is a non-profit information resource and a voice for insurance consumers. This presentation incorporates lessons learned from previous disaster survivors.

This class will be held in the Media Room at the Oakland Fire Department's Emergency Management Services Division
1605 Martin Luther King Jr. Way

You must register to attend this free class.

Register online at www.oaklandcore.org

or by email at
core@oaklandnet.com

